

What does the symbol at the bottom of the attract screen mean?

Indications for maintenance

Symbols that appear at the bottom of the main Attract screen indicate the current maintenance status of the machine. These can include simple warnings or blocking alerts. Blocking alerts may prevent the machine from dispensing drinks that require milk until the required maintenance action has been completed. Press the icon to learn more about how to resolve.